

MICHAEL HOUZE

OBJECTIVE Obtain a co-op/internship for the Spring of 2015 within the field of software development at an organization where I can apply my knowledge of Information Systems as well as learn new skills.

WORK HISTORY

GRAY'S COLLEGE BOOKSTORES

AUGUST 2004 - PRESENT

Online Sales and Inventory Manager

April 2008 - Present

- Established and grew an e-commerce presence for a locally-owned brick and mortar company.
- Increased yearly revenue from $210,000 to $3.2 million in a 4 year period.
- Designed and oversaw implementation of internally developed inventory maintenance system.
- Tested and communicated production code and communicated issues with the developer via Github.
- Designed and modified internal systems based on the business needs of ownership.
- Hired, trained and managed a small team consisting of 2 full-time and 8 seasonal employees.

Assistant Textbook Buyer

August 2004 - April 2008

- Entered course information and textbook information using a custom version of the OS/400 operating system.
- Communicated with professors concerning required textbook materials.
- Streamlined the processes of a full-time position to convert it to a part-time position.
- Closed and opened the retail store on an as-needed basis.

COMPUTER SKILLS

Language proficiency: HTML, CSS, C# (2 courses completed)

Language familiarity: Javascript, Python, Java, jQuery

Software familiarity: Visual Studio 2012, SQL Server 2012, Eclipse, Github

EDUCATION

BACHELOR OF SCIENCE IN COMPUTER INFORMATION SYSTEMS, UNIVERSITY OF LOUISVILLE

Web Development Concentration

Graduation Date: May 2015 (Expected)

Cumulative GPA of 3.54

Member of the Golden Key National Honor Society